I do remember you sweetie. And yes I would love to help out and be involved and thank you for asking me. Did the scenes I did as Queen Vic come out ok? Am looking forward to seeing it. Look out for me in a sealord commercial. That was a lot of fun too.

catch up soon

Val

Hi Val

Sorry to bother you

You probably don't remember me, I'm Rose, you played a brilliant Queen Victoria for my film Watcher (still in editing by the way, but getting there).

I have a role in my new feature film called Silverville, which is a 19 century romantic comedy, complete with full period costume,

I was wondering whether you might be interested

The role which I had in mind was Mrs O'Leary snr, she is the matriarch of the family, and is affectionately referred to as grandmother.

She is a down to earth character with a wicked sense of humour and a healthy disrespect for society's rules. She has an inherent dislike for her daughter in law and has great fun making her life hard work.

The shooting again would be in the summer holidays, although this time there is not as much shooting time as there was for Watcher, because the days are full days shooting instead of half days

The main bulk of the shooting occurs in the week of the 8th of December, I'm afraid that due to the insistence of Couldrey House Wenderholm, we cannot change those dates.

I have attached the shooting schedule as I remember that we had difficulties last time.

I have also attached a copy of the script of Silverville

If you are at all interested in this role can I give you my dad's phone number because my phone is on the fritz at the moment [REDACTED], my landline is [REDACTED] the extension is chalet 5

I live on the Coatsville - Riverhead Highway now, right near the junction, perhaps if you want to pop by for a chat in the evening?

I do hope you are interested, it was fun working with you last time

Look forwards to hearing from you

Hi Rose,

hope today's shoot went well. Not sure if I am needed tomorrow but I have a publicity gig lined up tomorrow to promote my show opening in two weeks. I did try to change it but no joy. Can you manage without me? Sorry I really don't want to let you down but also have to sell tickets for my show so had to say yes to this. Will that be okay? Hope all is going well

Sorry about late notice I texted earlier too.

All okay?

Please let me know if I can do anything.

All the best,
Erica
