Dear Rose

You've caught us at a particularly busy time as we have one opera about to open in Wellington this coming week, and one in Christchurch at the beginning of the week following, so almost all of our technical and wardrobe teams are not in Auckland at present.

However, the general feeling from the Company is that we love your initiative and we are always very keen to support creative endeavours for youth in the community where we can ... so we will be able to organise for you to pop out to our wardrobe facility in Onehunga and have a look to see if there is anything there that might fit the bill.

Would you be able to provide us with your, and your mum's, contact details? As soon as we have someone available at our Auckland wardrobe space at 107 Nelson Street, Onehunga, we'll be in touch to arrange a time to visit.

Should you then find something useable, we'll chat further about appropriate credit etc.

Thanks, Rose.

Warm wishes,
Jude

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am sorry to bother you, but I write to ask if you can help me with a feature film that I am making.

This is my second feature film and is a C19th romcom called Silverville, which I am making in Auckland. My screenplay is on www.darkrose.co.nz and when you've clicked on "Silverville" you enter the credentials username: Guest and Password: Antelope1 (with no gaps)

As I am only 16 yrs old, I cannot offer any money, but could offer to mention your group in my credits, if you would be so kind as to lend me some of your C19th costumes (Any sex, any size....any!!). I will need these costumes, on and off for different scenes from the beginning of December ('14) until the endish (we can't do the full shooting schedule until after the auditions) of January. My mother will be looking after the costumes and has a place to keep them all hung up and tidy. She has agreed to collect and deliver them and make sure that the actors look after them, too.

I will be entering this feature for lots of international festivals, as well as the NZ one, of course. Is there any chance that your group can help me, please?

best,

Rose Goldthorp

Dear Rose,

in reply to your e-mail to the President of Titirangi Theatre requesting costumes for your feature film. I have spoken with our Wardrobe Mistress, Lynn Cottingham, and she and I agree we would be willing for you to borrow whatever costumes you require.

We have an extensive range of 1800 costumes , both male and female. It would be OK for you to have them from late Nov thru to January.

The best thing to do would be to come anytime in our Wardrobe hours to view our selection, then in late Nov. /early Dec. we would put aside what you require.

Our hours are Wed 4-6pm , Frid. 5-7pm and Sat. 10am -12noon.

We are situated in Lopdell Hall which is behind Lopdell House in Titirangi village.

Lynn is not on computer, her phone number is [REDACTED]

It would probably be more convenient if you kept in touch with me at this e-mail address and my phone no. [REDACTED]

Due to construction work , the wardrobe is closed from July 6th and will re-open on 23rd July.

All the best,
Barbara Butland
