Hi Britt,

Good to hear you. Yes, I've been thinking about your costume. I was thinking all black, and something like cargo pants. What do you think about black sports top/big bra type thingy, with a black shirt fastened with a knot, over it? I've got all of these if they're a prob for you. Do you have any short boots? What do you think about the idea of a line of (stick on!) studs going down from under your chin to the top of your breast bone?

I think that there's a couple of particular costumes, as well, e.g. a kimono, I'll come back to you about them, but what do you think of the basic costume? Can you suggest a 'different'/odd/futuristic way that you want to wear your hair, Britt?

I've been waiting to hear that the dates on the new Shooting Schedule were OK, before I went ahead and confirmed with City Dance and Q Theatre, in the CBD, as well as the 'show home' of Signature Homes. Are these dates largely OK with you then, Britt? They're OK for the other leads. Can I go ahead and confirm?

Thanx,

Rose G
